Human resource solutions and more ...

- Need help engaging staff in a time of stress and uncertainty?
- Want help with agency changes to thrive through the downturn?
- Looking ahead to retain your staff for the next economic revival?

Consider the HR PLUS Edge, designed for agencies who need a practical approach, fast HR results, and flexibility. Customize your own HR solutions and learning through needs based consulting, on-line education, and HR tools and support on your terms.

CentrePoint will provide 75 hours over 8 months to work with an HR Mentor Consultant on your human resource work, as well as your HR strategy, tailored to your organizational requirements.

Learn when you want, on the HR topics you need to know about and at your own pace using innovative and new learning materials: CentrePoint e-learning modules, on-line Harvard HR and Management materials (available for up to two participants), and templates and tools.

Your work will be supported by an on-line group designed to exchange information, share ideas and explore your HR challenges.

PROGRAM DETAILS

“Participating in the HR PLUS 2009 pilot program was a great benefit to our Board and staff in moving our strategic goals forward. I was so impressed with the level of skills and expertise of the consultants and the Centre Point staff. This program not only builds a greater capacity in the organization, but leaves long-term tools and strategies that will continue to build on a solid foundation.”

Karen Caughey
Executive Director
ALS Society of Alberta
